Resident Input -

- Sheila Salo (Ward 2) On behalf of the Green Infrastructure Committee invited residents to join and participate in learning about Cheverly's air, water, trees, and plants; developing project recommendations for the Mayor and Council, and helping implement the Town's Green Infrastructure Plan. In the new year, the Committee will collaborate with other civic groups on events, including Cheverly Day, and monitor developments such as Hospital Hill, annexation plans, and the County Transportation Master Plan. Meetings are held virtually on the first Monday of each month. Agendas and Zoom links are available at www.greencheverly.org

Committee Reports

- Recreation Council – CM Wade – The holiday celebration was highly successful and well attended. Thanks were extended to the American Legion for accommodating a last-minute venue change, the Mayor for serving as Santa, the Recreation Council, and all volunteers who contributed to the event’s success. The Rec Council plans to meet in the new year to review traditional and flagship projects, as well as discuss new initiatives.
- Cheverly Day Committee – CM LeGloahec - No new updates. Cheverly Day is scheduled for September 26, 2026.
- Planning Board – CM Tansey - The Planning Board did not have a quorum but did receive a presentation from Home Team Five addressing our submitted questions. Will meet with the Chair and Co-Chair to review and compare the written and verbal responses. Will update the Mayor and Council on the status and whether any follow-up meeting is needed, as several responses are still pending further action.
- Board of Elections – Robin Kaye – No Report
- Ethics Commission – Thomas Ruyle - No Report
- Hometown Hero Committee – Mr. Galloway reported that the Hometown Heroes Committee reviewed and verified submissions from Cheverly residents and is recommending approval to move forward with banners for the following veterans: Sergeant Arthur Lee Martin (Army), James Crawford (Navy), Fred Price (Marine Corps), and Glen Woody Reinhardt (Army).

Motion to approve the four nominations (Arthur Lee Martin, James Crawford, Fred Price Jr., Glenn “Woody Reinhardt) for the Hometown Heroes Banner program made by CM Tansey. 2nd by CM Fry. Approved Unanimously. Vote 5-0
